Venezuela:* revised draft resolution

Third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 55/84 of 4 December 2000,

Reaffirming that racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance constitute a negation of the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,[1]

Reaffirming also its firm determination and its commitment to eradicate totally and unconditionally racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance,

Recalling with satisfaction the proclamation, in resolution 48/91 of 20 December 1993, of the Third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, which began in 1993, and the adoption, in resolution 49/146 of 23 December 1994, of the revised Programme of Action for the Third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination,

Noting with grave concern that despite the efforts of the international community, the principal objectives of the three Decades have not been attained and that countless human beings continue to the present day to be victims of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance,

Welcoming the fact that the outcome of the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance, held from 31 August to 8 September 2001 at Durban, South Africa, supported and strengthened the goals and objectives of the Programme of Action for the Third Decade and provided new ideas on practical measures to combat racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance,

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China.

Welcoming also the fact that the Declaration and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference[2] addressed a wider range of practical issues which could supplement the Programme of Action for the Third Decade,

Having considered the report submitted by the Secretary-General within the framework of the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Third Decade,[3]

1. Welcomes the report submitted by the Secretary-General;[3]

2. Recognizes the need for adequate support and financial resources for the Third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination and the Programme of Action for the Third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, and requests the Secretary-General to include in his report to the General Assembly at its fifty-seventh session concrete proposals on how to ensure the financial and personnel resources required for the implementation of the Programme of Action, inter alia, through the regular budget of the United Nations and extrabudgetary sources;

3. Expresses its appreciation to those that have made contributions to the Trust Fund for the Programme of Action for the Third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, strongly appeals to all Governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations and individuals in a position to do so to contribute generously to the Fund, and to this end requests the Secretary-General to continue to establish the appropriate contacts and undertake the appropriate initiatives;

4. Considers that, in order to attain the objectives of the Third Decade, all parts of its Programme of Action should be given equal attention;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to accord high priority to the activities of the Programme of Action for the Third Decade and, in this regard, to ensure that the necessary financial resources are provided for the implementation of such activities during the remainder of the Third Decade;

6. Reiterates its calls upon all Governments, United Nations bodies, the specialized agencies, intergovernmental and regional organizations and interested non-governmental organizations to contribute fully to the effective implementation of the Programme of Action for the Third Decade;

7. Recognizes that the outcome of the World Conference against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia and Related Intolerance should show the path for the remainder of the Third Decade and that the success of both the Declaration and Programme of Action adopted by the World Conference[2] and the Programme of Action for the Third Decade will require political will and adequate funding at the national, regional and international levels, and international cooperation;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to submit, through the Economic and Social Council, a report on the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Third Decade to the General Assembly at its fifty-seventh session;

9. Decides to continue the consideration of this matter at its fifty-seventh session under the item entitled "Elimination of racism and racial discrimination".
